

Liberty Global Transaction Solutions Group reveals new EMEA structure

BOSTON (07/29/2021, 2021) -- Liberty Global Transaction Solutions (GTS), part of Liberty Mutual Insurance, has announced a suite of team changes in EMEA. The appointments create a new regionalized structure for EMEA under the new leadership of Markus Messinger, who has been appointed Head of EMEA.

In addition, the following new roles have been created, all reporting into Markus:

- Daniel Müller: Co-Head of Germany, Austria and Switzerland (DACH)
- Louise Nordkvist: Head of Nordics
- Henry Pearson: Co-Head of London & Emerging Markets
- Sebastian Schmitt: Co-Head of Germany, Austria and Switzerland (DACH)
- Adam Smith: Co-Head of London & Emerging Markets
- Nick Lunn: Head of Southern Europe (Note: continuation of existing role).

All of the above are internal appointments.

Liberty GTS President Rowan Bamford commented “Our EMEA business has continued to outperform significantly throughout 2021. The new structure will help us to continue this momentum and grow further. Markus will have overall responsibility for the EMEA business and will work directly with me on the strategy to build out our footprint across the region, while his new team will take responsibility for the region in their respective titles. The structure will support us in continuing to service brokers and clients with centralized M&A insurance capabilities across an international network of offices, backed by a dedicated claims management team.”

Markus Messinger joined Liberty GTS in 2017. He established the Liberty GTS practice in Frankfurt and more recently has successfully built out and managed the wider Northern European business.
